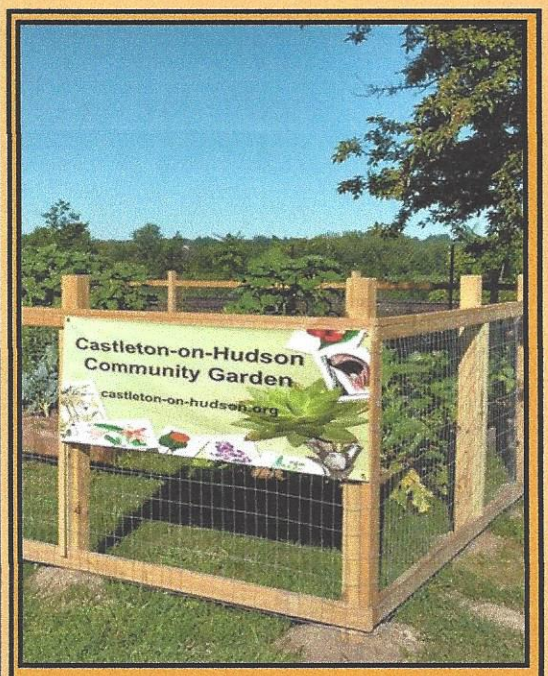
Castleton-on-Hudson Farmers' and Artisans' Market



The Castleton-on-Hudson Community Garden
Thank you Volunteers!

The Castleton-on-Hudson Farmers' and Artisans' Market debuted to great success and excitement this summer! The market was the brainchild of a group of village residents and artists who hoped to draw attention to the exciting changes happening in the village while also promoting local handmade and homegrown products. The market is held on the first and third Fridays of each month, June-September, from 4-7 pm, on the grassy lawn and parking lot at the intersection of Scott Ave and Main Street/Route 9J. The September 2nd and September 16th market days will be part of the Hudson River Valley Ramble.

In addition to welcoming visitors from Castleton-on-Hudson, Schodack, and the surrounding areas, the market has also been visited by a number of commuters on their way home from work via Route 9J, who have been pleasantly surprised to see a festive group of people enjoying live music, fresh food, and kids' activities, not to mention the many excellent vendors. Our vendors have been pleased with the market's success thus far, and are looking forward to its continued growth. There is no booth fee for vendors, but all must be pre-approved by the market committee, and must offer handmade or homegrown products. At this time, we are especially seeking more farmers to sell their fresh produce. The market encourages all local residents to come out on a Friday evening and enjoy a fun, family-friendly atmosphere with your neighbors!
